Aegir Pub

Ægir BrewPub is part of the Flåmsbrygga cluster situated on the Flåm Harbor, and is one of the biggest attractions in the area. The building is inspired by Norse mythology and reminiscent of a stave church. Inside are driftwood walls, dragon heads and a feature fireplace that radiates warmth and cosiness, with a chimney extending 9 m through the middle of both storeys. Sit on a fur rug by the open fire, and enjoy the aroma and flavour!
